Security self-declaration

Business: Example Electrical Ltd State as of: 3 November 2026

This self-declaration describes the state of information security at Example Electrical Ltd on 3 November 2026. Every field uses one of four answers: in place, partly, not yet with a target date, or not applicable with the reason. An honest “not yet” with a date is a complete answer.

Overview

Area	In place	Partly	Not yet	N/A
B · Organisation	0	1	0	0
C · Access and identities	2	3	1	0
D · Backup and continuity	0	1	2	0
E · Updates and devices	2	2	0	1
F · Incidents and reporting	0	1	1	0
G · People and training	2	0	1	0
H · Own providers and cloud	0	2	1	0
I · Evidence and end of contract	1	0	0	0
Total	7	10	6	1

A · Business and role

A1 · Business	Example Electrical Ltd
A2 · Country	Austria
A3 · Size	10 to 49 staff
A4 · Responsible for information security	Owner or managing director, +43 660 000 00 01 (example), office@example.at; deputy: office management
A5 · IT looked after by	Both: a provider for some things, ourselves for the rest (Example IT Services Ltd)
A7 · What we deliver and access	Services on site or in our workshop, with some customer data (contacts, plans, orders)
A8 · Evidence folder	Folder “Security” on the office server and the paper folder in the office

B · Organisation

B1 · Written security rules	Partly: a few rules exist, not as one document · planned by 1 February 2027
B2 · Cyber insurance	No
B3 · Certificates, labels, audits	None

Sample · page 1 of 3 · The complete document comes from the toolkit.